

MIDDLE GILA CANYON TRAVEL MANAGEMENT PLANNING PROCESS

Organizational Meeting
Thursday, February 22, 2007

U. S. Institute for Environmental Conflict Resolution
130 S. Scott Ave., Tucson, AZ
(520) 901-8501

Purpose of the meeting:

- ❑ Provide an introduction to the travel management planning process, including an overview of the resource management area and the decision-making process
- ❑ Clarify protocols for the collaborative process, including participants' roles and responsibilities
- ❑ Reach agreement on all logistics related to the process

- 6:00 PM Welcome and review of agenda (U. S. Institute)
General introduction to the travel management planning process (BLM TFO)
Participant introductions
- 6:30 PM Overview of the planning area, resource management and recreation issues (BLM TFO)
 - ❑ Questions and discussion
- 7:00 PM Overview of the NEPA planning and decision process (BLM TFO)
 - ❑ Questions and discussion
- 7:30 PM Discussion of the collaborative process
 - ❑ General protocols
 - ❑ Participants' roles and responsibilities
 - ❑ Schedule, venue, and logistical issues
 - ❑ Other concerns and questions
- 8:00 PM Adjourn